

Saros

Entrance control / Traffic barrier

The Saros barrier has been fully designed and manufactured by the Heras R&D department in response to market requirements and provides a highly functional, reliable and economical barrier option.

Saros is an electro-mechanical barrier with a fast and efficient operation, the Saros barrier has a robust internal frame and the aesthetic appearance that is well suited for use in commercial car parks, industrial site entrances and other busy locations.

